Open Toe

On Sunday night, I was up most of the night with a very painful and infected toe. In the morning, it was so sore and tender, that I could not even wear shoes. I thought for sure I would need to go see a podiatrist or doctor. I did Hishtadlus and put some cream on and wore open slippers all day. I then promised to thank Hashem when my toe got better. A few hours later, my toe was completely healed, and the pain all gone!

THANK YOU HASHEM

the past month time. This is due to the fact that their parents are busy with a sick baby. As we came near the border, I said Thank You Hashem for always helping us, no matter how things turned out. I had my letter of "Essential worker", but realized they're not really accepting them recently. Amazingly, the lady at the border accepted it! Thank You Hashem for allowing us to pay our promised amount to the "Thank You Hashem" organization, for healing our baby grandchild, and for helping us get through the border!

Phone to Go

We left a valuable phone in a very busy restaurant. As soon as we realized, we began to thank Hashem for all the times that we didn't lose valuables. We got back to the restaurant, and they had the phone waiting patiently for us! Thank You Hashem!

Thought of the Week

It is written in ספר ישעיהו עמ-זזו: יצַרְתִּי לִי תְהִלָּתִי יִסְפְּרוּ. It is asked, why did Hashem create humans with a physical body? Why did He not create them like מלאכים? Says the Baal Shem Tov Hakadosh, a משל about a king who has a bird that speaks. The king is proud of it and he shows it to everyone. So too, when a person thanks and praises Hashem, it is much more important to Hashem than the praise of a מלאך. This is why it is written, עמ-זזו: יצַרְתִּי לִי, תְהִלָּתִי יִסְפְּרוּ, that he will be able to thank me and thus bring joy to Hashem.

The Right Help

I got denied a certain reimbursement from an insurance company. In a time when the company I work for is not giving any raises due to the pandemic, I really could have used the money. I thanked Hashem for all the times he helped me, and Hashem sent the right people to help me out with this as well, and I got fully reimbursed! Thank You Hashem!
