Sibling Love

My children were not being so kind to each other, as we were about to leave on a car journey. I said, "Thank You Hashem, that my children are being kind to each other and looking out for each other". Within a few minutes, one child offered another child a cup of lemonade, and another one offered a pillow to his sister. My daughter offered music to my son. This is all Massive for my children! Thank you so much Hashem!

Permits to R' Shayala

Our permits got rejected on the way to JFK airport. It looked like there will be no possibility that we should be able to get to Kerestier. We took upon ourselves that we will thank Hashem in public if we will arrive to R' Shayala without any problems. Here we are, Thank You Hashem!

Zechus of Tefillas Todah

We went today for medical tests. The doctors thought emergency surgery was the solution. After saying Tefillas Todah and testing again, the results were amazing! There was just nothing, everything just disappeared like it was never there! Thank You Hashem!

Thought of the Week

מִי־חֲכָם וְיִשְׁמַר־אֱלֹה וַיִּתְּבוֹנְנוּ חֲסָדֵי ד'.
 The holy בַּת עֵין זִי"ע says, the meaning of אֱלֹה is two things, and the meaning of חֲסָדֵי is two חֲסָדִים. The Pasuk tells us, who is a wise one? The one who always looks at אֱלֹה, whether for the things that seem good and also for the ones that don't, וַיִּתְּבוֹנְנוּ חֲסָדֵי ד' and he sees the kindness of Hashem in both circumstances, he constantly has what to be thankful for. Through thanking, only good is showered upon us straight from Hashem.

Prompt Arrival

I needed to get a certain item for my customer urgently today but was told the earliest is tomorrow by the end of the day. I tried all options with no success, which would mean they would miss the weekend, since there is certain work that must be done before shipping out. I started Thanking Hashem and promised to thank again in public once it was approved for today. Thank You Hashem, the items are on the way to my customer now and will arrive very soon!
