Healthy Eyes

My two-month-old baby woke up with a swollen eye. I said to Hashem, "Please heal his eye quickly and completely, and once it's healed I will thank You publicly". I right away noticed the swelling go down and two hours later was completely gone! Thank You Hashem!

Perfect Pitch

I was davening for the Omud, and my voice started to go just before Hallel. I thanked Hashem for all the times my voice was good during davening and promised to thank Hashem if all went well. Thank You Hashem it all went perfectly!

Paid Up

There was money on the line, and it was very time sensitive. The only way for me to succeed, was that something that was out of my control would happen in a very time sensitive manner. I promised to Thank Hashem in public and say Mizmor Lesodah 26 times, if Hashem helped me, and he did! Now it's time to pay back my 26 Mizmorim and thank Hashem!

Thought of the Week

Bounteous joy

It says in פרשת שלח by the story of the מרגלים

וַתִּשָּׂא כָל-הָעֵדָה וַיִּתְּנוּ אֶת-קוֹלָם וַיִּבְכּוּ הָעָם בְּלֵילָה הַהוּא

In the Gemara by מסכת תענית it is written: Says the holy רבה what Rabbi Yochanan explained that, that day was Tisha B'Av. Hashem told the Jews, you cried out loud for nothing, I will have you all cry for generations to come over the destruction of the בית המקדש. Says the holy אמרי אמת: Truthfully and surely, if a Jew rejoices even when there is nothing to rejoice over, and he thanks and praises the Almighty, Hashem will give him joy for generations with many reasons on what to rejoice.

Goal Reached

I had no idea how I was going to finish the monthly minimum for work. I thanked Hashem for all the times I did and trusted Him to make it happen. At the last minute, one of my team members brought in a few new orders, and I reached my minimum threshold! Thank You Hashem!
