Driving on Empty

I was driving in a rural area just an hour ago or so, and my gasoline was on empty. A sign eventually showed up saying, gas in 6 kilometers, 3.7 miles. I was thanking Hashem over and over again while driving, saying Hashem can do anything, and what will happen will be His plan, and I'll be grateful for whatever that will be. I never saw the needle on empty allow so much driving till the gas station. When I arrived, it was a very cheap price too! Thank You Hashem!

Hashem is the best Banker

I keep my money in envelopes earmarked for the particular bills that have to be paid. When I went to get three of the envelopes, they were gone! In total, $750 was stolen! I work hard to accumulate the appropriate amount of funds for the bills of the month. When I first saw they were gone, I was devastated, and started to cry. At some point the thoughts came into my mind, I've been working on myself so hard to trust in Hashem that everything happens exactly the way it's supposed to, with divine guidance. So I sat up, wiped my tears, and started to say out loud, "Hashem, it's a few weeks before Rosh Hashanah perhaps I owe you money, I'm going to trust you completely that this is exactly perfect for me and I am so happy and I'm going to say Thank You Hashem you took the $750 for me right now because everything You do is a Bracha". A few days later, I had a client who was supposed to hand me $150 for the services, instead handed me five checks, each made out for $800 toward my mortgage, with my name on each check! Clearly, I had to give back the $750 to receive $4000 in return. Thank You Hashem, you are the best!

Issue Resolved

I had a medical issue flare up about an hour ago and I was sure I would need to go to the hospital! I called the doctor who walked me through it and gave me some instructions that would possibly help. I kept saying Tehillim and asked Hashem to please help and promised to thank Hashem if the issues would resolve soon without the need to go to the hospital. Thank You Hashem, the issue resolved about 15 minutes later!

Thought of the Week

It is written in Parashat Beshalach, אָז יִשְׂרָאֵל וּבְנֵי יִשְׂרָאֵל אֶת־הַשִּׁירָה הַזֹּאת. One can ask: Why does it say יִשְׂרָאֵל, he will sing, in the future tense, and not שָׂר that he sang, in the past tense. Says the Holy Baal Shem Tov Zt"l, it is written in Tehillim פרק קכ"א, ד' צֶלֶךְ עַל־יְדֵי יְמִינֶךָ. It means that Hashem is supposedly like a shadow, what the Jews do also Hashem does. The פסוק explains that when the Jews sang שירה, Hashem also sang along with them. The same is true for when a Jew is thankful, he brings upon himself that Hashem will give him much more to be thankful for.
