Smooth Move

Thank You Hashem for a smooth completion and move, and for keeping the rain away while we moved! I could see the rain coming and promised to thank Hashem if the rain wouldn't come until we finished moving. Just as we finished moving, the heavens opened, and it started to rain!

Hashem always Saves us

I was working on a file for over 5 hours, and the computer didn't let me save it. I started to panic! How would I get the customers to pay me for all those hours? I was at a loss! I started thanking Hashem for the extra side freelancing, and for all the times I was able to save my documents. I tried again, but still no luck. I continued to thank even more. Then of course, Hashem gave me an idea of how I can save my file. Thank You Hashem, it worked!

Exception

I drove almost 2 hours to a place, and when I got there they didn't let us in, saying that we need to book a reservation. We begged them a few times to let us in as we came all the way, but they didn't want to listen. So, I thanked Hashem for giving us the opportunity to go there, and promised to thank Him in public if they let us in. After a minute, they came out saying that this time they will make an exception only for us and let us in! Thank You Hashem!

Thought of the Week

It is written in Tehillim
פרק ט' פסוק ו', נְתַתָּה לִירְאִיךָ גִּסְלֵהתְנוּסָה
 The question is, why is it written twice גִּסְלֵהתְנוּסָה
 Says the holy זרע קודש מראפשיך that when a Jew thanks Hashem for the miracles that happened to him, he brings upon himself Divine protection and more miracles are being sent to him directly from Hashem.

Kidney Donor

Thank You Hashem, there are not enough words of praise I can possibly say that can adequately express our family's profound gratitude, that my husband has a kidney donor! He is still in relatively good health, not on dialysis, and the donor was found so quickly, Thank You Hashem!
