Insurance Reinstated

I just found out that I had a lapse on my car insurance for over 2 months, and the company told me that I won't be able to have it reinstated and will get multiple penalties. At first I was lost! Then I thanked Hashem for giving me such a good insurance rate until now and asked that they should reinstate the policy with no penalties. A few minutes later they called me, that since it wasn't completely my fault they will reinstate it with no penalties! Thank You Hashem!

Locked Out!

We were out of our city and renting a small apartment in a temporary rental building. On Friday we were invited to a Shabbos Seuda a bit far away. As there was no Eiruv in this city, we had to get a special belt to put the keys without carrying them. There are two keys that we had to carry, one to the entrance of the building and the one to the apartment. When we arrived, we realized that the key to the apartment was wrong! We did not know what to do! As I went down the stairs to figure out a solution, I said "Thank You Hashem" very calmly. Suddenly I see the room that the doorman stores the keys. I found the spare key and was able to open it! Hashem must have opened the room with the keys just for us because the rest of Shabbos it was always locked! Thank You Hashem!

Credit Card Declined

We were out shopping, and my credit card kept on getting declined while there were enough funds in the account. I said I will try one more time and asked them to try to put the info in manually meanwhile I quietly said I will thank Hashem publicly if it goes through successfully. Thank You Hashem, it worked!

Thought of the Week

It says in Tehillim Chapter 118, אֲדַרְךָ כִּי עֲנִיתָנִי וַתֵּהִי-לִי לִישׁוּעָה, and in Chapter 18, מִהֲלַל אֶקְרָא ד' וּמִן-אֵיבֵי אֲנִשֶׁע. The בני יששכר explains that when a person believes in Hashem, he doesn't have to ask for salvation. He could bring salvation by way of thanking and praising Hashem. This is why the Pasuk says, מִהֲלַל אֶקְרָא ד' When one thanks Hashem, וּמִן-אֵיבֵי אֲנִשֶׁע, one gets salvation.

Mitzvah of Sukkah

My niece was sitting in the Sukkah, where it was not Kosher. Her brother told her to move in, to get a Mitzvah. She moved, and 30 seconds later a brick fell on the floor right where she sat! Thank You Hashem for saving her from a fatality.
