Sing and Praise Hashem

Our flight arrived at the airport, we did our COVID-tests, and walked outside with all of our kids. However, we forgot an entire luggage cart with three suitcases on it! I was really uncertain if they would let us back in, especially with the on-site COVID-testing. My son left to go back in, and I began singing "Thank You Hashem", thanking Him for bringing us home safely, for taking care of all our luggage, etc. I told Him that I'll publicly thank Him when we had all of our luggage. Thank You Hashem, he came out a few minutes later with the luggage! Thank You Hashem!

Let Hashem Defend

I received a red-light ticket May of 2019, and I postponed it once. I tried to postpone it again but wasn't able to. Today, after saying a few times the Tefillas Todah, and thanking Hashem for everything till now, I spoke to Hashem and told him that HE gives me this ticket and only HE can take it away. I asked Hashem to put the right words in my mouth and that the judge should listen to my plea. At court, the judge said that the officer is going to present his case and I have to be silent till he finishes, and then I can present my defense. The officer went on and on about the intersection, and the name of the streets, and so forth. When he finished, the judge asked him if he was done and he said, "Yes". As the judge was writing the sentence, she said, "I deem this ticket "Not Guilty" because you failed to say where the red light was! I didn't even have to open my mouth! Thank You Hashem for taking care of it for me!

Fixed Air Conditioner

Our central air conditioner broke down today. It was very hot in the house, and I have asthma and allergies. So, the first thought we had, was to thank Hashem for all the times our AC was working, and also to thank Hashem for all the times it needed to be repaired and we found someone who could fix it pretty quickly. Then we said the Tefillas Todah and made a few calls. Thank You Hashem, we found someone who could come out, on his way home from work. He fixed it without needing to order any parts!

Thought of the Week

In Parshas Vayishlach it says that the Angel told Yaakov, וַיֹּאמֶר שְׁלַחֲנִי כִּי עֵלָה הַשָּׂמֶר. Rashi explains, that on that day the Angel had an opportunity to sing שירה to Hashem. The further explains that each Angel is given the opportunity to sing שירה to Hashem, only once in their lifetime and only after they have done a Chessed for a Yid on this earth. Only because the Angel blessed Yaakov, he was then allowed to sing שירה to the Almighty. If we would contemplate, just how fortunate we are to be able to thank Hashem at every moment, we would never miss an opportunity to thank Him.
