Teeth Saved

I was with one of my kids at the hospital to do work on her teeth. Originally, the doctor said that she will have to pull out most of them. I promised to thank Hashem if that won't be the case. And after a couple hours working, the doctor came out and said that she was able to save all of them, not even one was pulled! Thank You Hashem!

Suspicious Buyer

I sold an expensive item and was excited. It had been a while that I sold something, and my bank account was almost dry. As always, I thanked Hashem profusely. The buyer sent me a message, that I should deliver somewhere else. It sounded very suspicious, so I called eBay and they agreed with me that it looks like fraud. I contacted and told him that I can't change the address, and thanked Hashem that I lost the sale. I thought that the "buyer" is not going to answer, but he did. He told me to deliver to the original address! It was only to test my Emuna, and Thank You Hashem, I passed!

Thought of the Week

It says in Parshas Vayigash, וַיִּגַּשׁ אֱלֹהֵינוּ הַיּוֹדֶה. The שפת אמת explains that the name הודאה is rooted in the word - thanking. That is why the Yidden are called יהודים, because they thank Hashem for everything. This is what this Passuk is indicating. וַיִּגַּשׁ אֱלֹהֵינוּ If a Yid wants to ask Hashem for something, הַיּוֹדֶה then he should thank Hashem and he will receive whatever he needs.

Old Degree

I applied for a job offer and with help of Hashem I was granted an interview which went well. A day later, as I called to get to the next step, the manager asked for a BA or school degree, which I didn't have. She immediately told me, "Sorry, we were under the impression that you had one, otherwise we wouldn't have interviewed you". I contacted my Yeshiva which I attended over 35 years ago and asked for a Yeshiva degree. They had quite a difficult time to get it. After a couple of days, I accepted to thank Hashem if they find it and send it. Sure enough, it worked out after much toil! Thank You Hashem!

Easy Crossing

As I was approaching the Canadian border, they usually make me issues due to a past misunderstanding. I promised that if I won't have any problems I will publicly thank Hashem. Thank You Hashem, it did not take me even 30 seconds to pass the border! Even in this covid-19 environment it would take longer, but still went in 30 seconds!
