A Chanukah Miracle

Yesterday, before lighting the Chanukah candles, I was driving down a hill in the snow. There was a car stopped at the bottom of the hill in front of me, Suddenly, my brakes failed because of the snow, and I couldn't stop! The car was sliding down the hill, and I was scared that I would crash! Thank You Hashem for opening my eyes and saving me. There was an area with no people on the pavement, and I was able to skid the car onto there and bring it to a stop before continuing my journey!

Up, Down, Hashem is Everywhere

Yesterday, I was in the elevator when everything turned off and it stopped working! I didn't have my phone on me either! After a few attempts of ringing the alarm and pressing other buttons, nothing happened and no sound on the other end of help coming. I stopped everything, and just turned to Hashem and said, "Thank You Hashem, I know you just want to hear from me." 2 seconds later, the elevator started moving in a very random order up and down, until it finally stopped in the lobby and the doors opened!

Life Changing

Ever since I started thanking Hashem, my life changed. I would like to publicly thank Hashem for saving my life, as a car side-swiped me, almost skidding in bad weather and hitting my car. In addition, I had a meeting for work that went very well.

Thought of the Week

The שני לוחות של"ה הקדוש, in his book of יודו לד הברית, comments on the verse חסדו ונפלאותיו לבני אדם. The verse begins with חסדו - His grace, which is in a singular version, and ends with ונפלאותיו - His wonders, which is in a plural version. The שני לוחות הקדוש says, that when a person thanks Hashem for the חסדים - the grace that he gets, then ונפלאותיו לבני אדם happens, meaning that grace and redemption will come upon others as well. Remember, that when you thank Hashem, you're not the only one who finds salvation, but others find salvation as well.

Leg Cramp

I had a major leg cramp last night that wouldn't go away! I thanked Hashem for always helping me when this happens, and to please help me again. Then I said Tefillas Todah, and soon the pain went away, and I was able to sleep! Thank you Hashem again!
