Choking!

My daughter went onto the bus with a snacker in her mouth. She was crying and began to cough with her mouth full. She seemed to be choking, I wasn't able to do anything as the bus was leaving! I was very nervous and worried! I thanked Hashem for having food to give my children and promised to thank Hashem in public as soon as I find out she's ok. I called the school and was told she walked in looking fine! Thank You Hashem!

Good Worker

It's very hard to find good workers now days. I told myself I will thank Hashem publicly if I find the right guy. I found the right one even better than expected! I want to publicly thank Hashem for sending me a great worker.

Thank Hashem for Teeth

My young son had terrible pain in his two front teeth. We went to the dentist who told us that a specialist needs to have a look at it, as it's out of his depth, and he's not able to help us. We both realized that we've never actually thanked Hashem for our teeth. The fact that we can eat, and it helps us speak. We said we will thank Hashem publicly when he's not in pain. We haven't managed to get an appointment yet with a specialist but Thank You Hashem he is not in any more pain! Thank You Hashem!

New Home

We were supposed to close for a new house at a certain date, and we still weren't approved for mortgage. It didn't look too good but kept thanking Hashem for this situation. We also didn't have the full down-payment needed for closing. The final day of the closing date, I got approved, and the money for the down-payment came in a day later! Thank You Hashem for this wonderful gift!

Thought of the Week

We say in נשמת אין אנוהו מספיקים לך להודות לך which means, we cannot thank Hashem enough. Then we start to list the following: אברים שפליגת בנו. ורוח ונשמה שנפחת באפינו. In that case, how can we list these things to thank Hashem for? Says the Holy סופר חתם, that an individual does not have the ability enough to thank for everything. However, when you thank Hashem in public with others, it counts as one. Therefore, it states, הן הם יודו, ויברכו וישבחו ויפארו a plural language.
