Planned and Succeeded

My wife lost her diamond bracelet a few weeks ago on the way to a wedding. I gathered my kids, and I made an announcement that we're planning a big Sudas Hodah that we found the bracelet, even though we have not yet found it. We were envisioning how it'll look like, how the bracelet will be displayed on the table, and what food we'd eat. Today my wife gets a call, that a bracelet is advertised in one of the papers and that it said found at that wedding. Sure, enough my wife called the number on the ad, and it was her bracelet! Now we can throw our party for real! Thank You Hashem!

Safe Flight

I needed to get onto a certain flight. However, it was sold out. I said Mizmor L'sodah, and a seat became available an hour before flight! Thank You Hashem for always looking out for me.

UPS

I would like to thank Hashem publicly. Since Erev Shabbos, I was expecting a UPS pickup for over 100 boxes, and it did not look like they will do it. I promised if they come I will thank Hashem publicly. Less than 5 minutes later the UPS truck came and took all the boxes! Thank You Hashem!

Thought of the Week

The תשובתם היית לנצח ותקוותם quotes the verse, מגילת אסתר, בְּכֹל דּוֹר וְדוֹר. He explains that through thanking and praising Hashem on Purim for the miracles, we bring eternal salvations and blessings upon the entire world. Furthermore, when one gives thanks to Hashem, at any given moment, one brings salvations and blessings into his own life.

The Power of Thanking

We are driving to a Simcha for Shabbos. I was in the middle of saying Tefillas Todah when a car swerved into our lane! He missed our car by a split second! Thank You Hashem for protecting us always!
