Deal after Deal

Less than 3 weeks into my new job, I closed a deal. No matter how bad it looked, I thanked Hashem, said the Tefillas Todah, promised to thank Hashem in public, and donate to the "Thank You Hashem" organization. I just got the news that another deal closed. Before I even told my team or my boss or my family, I want to say, "Thank You Hashem"!

Best Job

My daughter was looking for a full-time job for a few months, in a specific profession. Today I told her to say the Tefillas Todah and thank Hashem for everything. She just called me; she's signing contract for a full-time job in her profession that she loves! Thank You Hashem!

Thanking for Everything

I was very dizzy, I asked Hashem it should go away. I promised to thank Him if it goes away. Then my kids were not feeling well, and with one child I needed to go to the hospital. I thanked Hashem for everything and asked He should make it quick, and everything should be OK. Thank you Hashem for taking away my dizziness and for my son being quickly out of the hospital!

Home Sweet Home

I want to thank Hashem in public that my father is back home from the hospital. He had some problems with his heart. I said Tehillim 100 and 20, I thanked Hashem for everything, and that I have such an amazing father! Today, I got a message from my mother, and he's back home! Thank You Hashem!

Thought of the Week

The שלי"ה הקדוש, in his book of שני לוחות יודו לד תסדו הברית, comments on the verse וְנִפְלְאוֹתָיו לְבָנֵי אָדָם the verse begins with תסדו - His grace, which is in a singular version, and ends with וְנִפְלְאוֹתָיו - His wonders, which is in a plural version. The שלי"ה הקדוש says, that when a person thanks Hashem for the תסדים - the grace that he gets, then וְנִפְלְאוֹתָיו לְבָנֵי אָדָם happens, meaning that grace and redemption will come upon others as well. Remember, that when you thank Hashem, you're not the only one who finds salvation, but others find salvation as well.
