Vertigo, Go!

Last night, I had a bout of vertigo. I thanked Hashem for all the times that I am healthy and promised to donate to the "Thank You Hashem" organization if it goes away. Thank You Hashem, I woke up without the dizziness!

Right Size

My son wanted to be something specific on Purim. He chose it a few weeks ago and was confident in his decision. We went last week to buy it but they were out of his size, and were getting in more in 2 days. I went back 2 days later, and they said they're sold out again, and it's not coming back in. I tried ordering online, and only 1 place had his size, but when it arrived it was the wrong size. I could see the disappointment in his face, but he took it quite well. I told him; we'll thank Hashem now for all the times he was able to be what he wanted and see how it plays out. The next day I called a different location, and they had 1 left in his size! Thank You Hashem!

Passport on Time

We booked tickets to Israel, and my daughter needed a passport. It was hard to get an appointment, and when we finally got one. When we arrived there that day, the office was closed due to bad weather. I started saying Nishmas and Mizmoir Lesoida daily, and we quickly got another appointment. A week later, and the passport has arrived! Thank You Hashem!

Thought of the Week

The holy תפארת שלמה זי"ע writes: It is written in Tehillim, פְּתַחוּ לִי שַׁעַר צְדָקָה. אָבֵא בָם אוֹדָה קֵה. He explains, in order to open the gates of heaven, a Jew must first praise Hashem and then he can ask for what he wants. We can see it by קֵה אוֹדָה קֵה, where right after a person can say אָנֹה ד' הוֹשִׁיעָה נָא. A similar example is shown in the Gemara in לעולם יסדר מסכת ר"ה, where it states אדם שבחו של השי"ת ואח"כ יתפלל. Due to this, the אנשי כנה"ג put together the פסוקי דזמרה, which are composed in gratitude to the Creator and after that, a Jew can then pray for his needs.

Reserved by Hashem

We go every summer upstate to a bungalow colony. We had plans to go for this summer, but there was some misunderstanding, and my bungalow was offered to someone else. I quickly said Tefillas Todah and told Hashem I will publicize it if I get it back. Thank You Hashem, the board let me know that I can have it back!
