Loan Approved

I've been waiting for a while for a loan to process. It first got denied, so I thanked Hashem for the opportunity and asked that it should get approved, even though the people involved said that it's impossible. Thank You Hashem, just received the money!

Always Thanking

Every time I get into the car I say, "Thank You Hashem for the car", "Thank you Hashem for the driver", etc. . We are now on a highway with a car full of kids. We started spinning over 2 lanes with high traffic! We spun a few times over the lanes! Thank You Hashem, no car crashed into us, and all 6 people in total are completely unharmed!

Thank You Hashem, I'm Alive!

About 3 months ago I was in a horrific car accident, in which I was ejected from. I was found in the bushes, in the dark, with more broken bones than not, by dedicated Hatzalah members. It's a miracle that I'm alive! After lots of surgeries, I am currently in rehab and finally learning how to walk again. I am publicly thanking Hashem for saving my life and for the bones and organs that haven't broken and are functioning. I still have a long road to recovery and will thank Hashem publicly when I leave the rehab.

Refund Request

I was trying to get a refund for a payment that was made in error. I called Venmo and they said they can't do anything about it but should ask the recipient for the refund. At first, he said he would return the money, but then he started ignoring our calls. I told Hashem that I'm putting it in His hands, and Derech Hateva they probably won't do it, but Hashem can do anything. I called Venmo back, and while I waited on hold I said Tefillas Todah and Mizmor L'sodah. When they came back on the line, they said they're putting in a dispute. We will get back the money, Thank You Hashem!

Thought of the Week

The Pasuk in Parshat Metzora states, זאת תהיה תורת המצוה. The שפת אמת זי"ע explains that the Torah is teaching us that the essence of the entire Torah is in the power of one's speech. A Yid needs to use that power to constantly express praises and thanks to Hashem and in doing so, bring salvation to the world.
