Airport in Time

Our newly married couple had just landed, and we were on the way to pick them up when we missed the turn off a very busy highway. I said Tefillas Todah three times and promised to publicize if we find a way to get to the airport. Thank You Hashem, we found the way and got to the airport in time!

Seats Arranged

On a flight, we (a family of 6) were seated in different places, which was difficult for us because we have younger kids. Together we all thanked Hashem for getting seated together last time, and we asked Him to help us be seated together again this time. When we got to the airport, they tried to seat us together, and said we should get help at the gate. The lady at the gate rearranged our seats so that we were all together, which made the flight so much more enjoyable and made everyone happy. Thank You Hashem!

Hashem is the Best Doctor

Last night I had terrible pain. It was so strong, that I was thinking of calling Hatzalah. I said Tefillas Todah and told Hashem, you are the only one that can make my pain go away in a second, and I will thank You in public. Thank You Hashem, in went away a few minutes later!

All from Hashem

We were out of town and lost our car keys and panicked. We were thinking how to get into the car for the drive home, plus Chaverim are not in this area. I quickly Thanked Hashem and begged him to please help us. I also promised to thank Hashem B'rabim. Thank You Hashem for the Agmas Nefesh and Thank You Hashem for the joy in finding it!

Thought of the Week

The Midrash comments on the Pasuk, וַיֹּאמֶר ד' אֶל-מֹשֶׁה מִה-תִּצְעַק אֵלַי דְּבַר אֶל-בְּנֵי-יִשְׂרָאֵל וְיִסְעוּ
 Moshe Rabbeinu asked Hashem what the Yidden shall do, and Hashem answered, "You shall say שירה for Me." The הרן בית אהרן explains, that most people, when they are in the need of a salvation, they recite תהלים, begging Hashem to help them. However, David Hamelech teaches us the following: מהוולל אקרא ה' When one needs salvation, one shall begin thanking, without even asking for a solution. ומאוּבֵי אושע, Then, salvation will surely come.
