Best Flight

I had a flight that was delayed by two hours. I ran to make another flight, and said I'd thank Hashem if I make it. First I got TSA pre-check even though I don't have it, but the flight was full. I tried one more flight, and they said "unlikely". I begged them to please try again. There were many passengers ahead of me. They asked for my name, and put me on standby. Then they gave me an emergency row seat with more space. I was asked to check my handbag, but as I boarded, they let me take it with me. Thank You Hashem for your kindness, and making sure I have a nice flight!

Promised Kept

My husband was waiting for a client to pay. He said in the beginning of the week that he will thank Hashem in public if they make a payment. Thank You Hashem, it came through today!

Full Payments Resumed

Tax credit have cut down my childcare, as they requested proof and I didn't send it back on time. I thanked Hashem for all the time they pay, and I appealed for them to reconsider and accept my late reply. Thank You Hashem, they accepted and started paying in full!

Thought of the Week

The Pasuk in this week's Parashah states: וְאֶת־יְהוָה שָׁלַח לִפְנֵי אֱלֹהִים לְשׁוֹן The לְהוֹרֹת לִפְנֵי גִשְׁנָה וַיָּבֵאוּ אֶרְצָה גִשְׁן The עֲבוֹדַת יִשְׂרָאֵל ז"ע explains that when a Yid wants to request something from Hashem, he must begin with thanking Hashem, first. That's why the Pasuk says, וְאֶת־יְהוָה שָׁלַח לִפְנֵי. Yaakov first sent Yehuda, whose name is a לְשׁוֹן of הוֹדָא; thanking. אֱלֹהִים לְהוֹרֹת לִפְנֵי. To guide us in this גְּלוּת, to give thanks to Hashem. Thereby, growing closer to Him and bringing blessings and salvations upon ourselves.

Itchy Itch

I had a terrible itch on my back. I was itchy a few times every day for years. The Dr. said that I need surgery cause a nerve is pressing on something, I don't know on what! Thank You Hashem, all of a sudden it stopped for three weeks already, that I am itch free!
