Dangerous Fire!

We had an electrical fire! The plug of an extension cord overheated, and started burning. It melted away from the socket, and the wire fell, but remained curled just above the wooden floor. It could have ignited the easily ignitable particle-pressed backboard of a cabinet. Luckily, my son wasn't asleep in his bed, or it would be inches away from his mattress. While he ran looking for the fire extinguisher downstairs, he yelled that I should come out of my room, there's a fire in his room! I was able to pick up the burning chord and blow out the fire. All that was left, was just some soot on the wall, and a socket to be replaced. Thank You Hashem for spring us from a life-threatening situation!

An Inspiring Speech

My husband and I run our own business, and have a customer who sends us about a 20k order once or twice a year. We were getting tight financially, having recently made a wedding, and my husband kept saying he wishes they would send another order. Today, we were listening to a talk by R' Ari Berkowitz, about the concept of thanking Hashem. I kept thanking Hashem all day, and suddenly after months of subtly nagging the client I got an email order for $22,000. Thank You Hashem!

Knee Pain

One day I woke up feeling pain in my knee. Thank You Hashem that I had pain killers to calm it down. I am also thanking Him for the good blood work results that I took 2 days ago.

Thought of the Week

In this week's Parashah the Pasuk states: מֵאֲשֶׁר וְהָיָה יְתֵן מַעֲדֵנֵי מֶלֶךְ. שְׂמֵנָה לַחֲמֹ וְהָיָה יְתֵן מַעֲדֵנֵי מֶלֶךְ. The עין ז"ע explains that the Torah wants to teach us the way to obtain abundance. The essence of a Yid is thanking Hashem, both for the good and for the seemingly bad as well, believing that Hashem does only good. As it says, כֹּל הַנְּשִׂמָה תְהִלָּה, עַל כֹּל נְשִׂימָה וְנִשְׂמָה תְהִלָּה קָה, and, עַל כֹּל נְשִׂימָה וְנִשְׂמָה תְהִלָּה קָה. One needs to thank Hashem for every breath, for every blessing and even for every tribulation, with complete Emuna that the challenge is essentially good and for his benefit. Furthermore, thanking Hashem for difficulties mitigates and sweetens stern judgments and brings forth salvations, מֵאֲשֶׁר - מַאֲכִילִים - מַעֲדֵנֵי מֶלֶךְ, which is a לשון of thanking. Additionally, שְׂמֵנָה* is rooted in the word נְשִׂמָה. If we thank Hashem for everything that we have, עַל כֹּל נְשִׂימָה וְנִשְׂמָה, in spite of what we lack. Then, וְהָיָה יְתֵן מַעֲדֵנֵי מֶלֶךְ, Hashem, our King, will grant us abundant

Unexpected Help

My wife was struggling with our newborn. We hired a nurse for 2 weeks, and it was so helpful! We knew we had to give the nurse up because we simply couldn't afford her. Today my wife got an unexpected bonus from work, which gives us another 2 weeks for the nurse! Thank You Hashem!
